W. D. Harrigan Tells Of His Extensive Lumber Interests In Idaho

W. D. Harrigan, a former merchant of this city now a wealthy lumberman of Mobile, Ala., and St. Maries, Idaho, was in the city Saturday. He is associated with Charles Herrick in the lumber business and the firm operates two immense saw mills, one in Fulton, Ala., and the other in St. Maries. Mr. Harrigan spent practically the whole of last summer in Idaho looking after his vast interests.

Speaking of operations in the west Mr. Harrigan stated that the St. Maries mill has a sawing capacity of 9,000,000 feet of timber a month. The plant ceased operations for the season three weeks ago.

The firm purchased the entire tract of government timber in Idaho which was swept by the terrible fire of three years ago, paying $2.00 per thousand just as it stood. Only the choicest of the trees are being cut. Mr. Harrigan said that the labor problem in the west is a difficult one. Men demand $2.50 per day for their services and do just as little work as possible. At the present time the company employs about 1200 men at woods and railway work. For lumbering and as a place of residence Mr. Harrigan likes the south much better than the west.

CHARITY LEAGUE WILL SELL SEALS

People Of City Are Urged To Help In Fight Against Tuberculosis

Again this year the Charity League have charge of the Red Cross Seal Sale. The people of Rhinelander and Oneida county know that the object of the sale is to get funds to wage the campaign against tuberculosis and statistics, just from our small community show there is a crying need for this work here. If the people will co-operate with the League and be ready to buy Oneida county should lead the state in the per capita sale. One-half the funds collected from this sale are kept here for the work, so in buying the seals you are helping your own environment. Remember it is your fight against tuberculosis as well as your neighbor's. He may be suffering with the white plague now and isn't it your duty to yourself and your family to try to better conditions so there is less likelihood of the disease spreading.

The seals are one cent each. Be ready to buy when the seals are put on sale. Let Oneida county show its interest in the good work and help in this campaign by buying liberally.

RHEAUME IS LUCKY HUNTER

Kills Deer Sunday Only Short Ways
From Court House

Unlike the majority of venison seekers Antonio Rheaume of this city does not believe in traveling long distances into the woods to get his deer. He prefers to take a little jaunt about half a mile from his front yard, secure his game and by home again in time to have some of the steak cooked for dinner. This is exactly what Mr. Rheaume did last Sunday. He killed a doe of good size near Mud lake and within sight of the court house. The lucky shot was made almost within the limits of the city and only a short walk from Mr. Rheaume's home. It is probable that the deer had been chased out of the woods by dogs of lawless hunters.

HIS MAJESTY, KING TURK

PROCLAMATION BY GOVERNOR THANKSGIVING DAY, NOVEMBER 28

Governor Francis E. McGovern has made official proclamation setting aside Thursday, November twenty-eighth, as the day of thanksgiving for this year. The proclamation is as follows:

"Another year is drawing near a close. To the people of Wisconsin it has brought abundant prosperity in all fields of endeavor. The earth has yielded bountifully to the labors of the farmer and the miner; prices have been good and markets steady; and manufacturing has greatly expanded. Good health and general contentment have prevailed and the elements that often work destruction have dealt kindly with us.

"With one of old whose heart was overflowing with thankfulness we can truthfully say: 'Our cup runneth over.'

"In accordance with long established usage and custom and in conformity with the proclamation of the president of the United States I, Francis E. McGovern, as governor of the state of Wisconsin, do hereby designate Thursday, the twenty-eighth day of November, A. D., 1912 as Thanksgiving day and I earnestly urge that it be observed in a manner consistent with the thanksgiving spirit.

"I recommend that on that day congregations assemble in their accustomed places of worship and by praise and prayer express their gratitude to God for the loving care that has attended them throughout the year.

"On this day, too, it will be fitting for those who have abundance to share with those who are in want. No one in this land of abundance should be permitted to suffer for need of food. Above everything else, let us unite to create conditions that will abolish poverty and make our beloved state a model of industrial thrift and economic justice among the commonwealths of America."

MAKE TROLLEY RETRIEVERS

Charles E. Crusoe Organizes Company
At Flint Mich.

Charles E. Crusoe, a former merchant of this city now a real estate broker of Flint, Mich., has organized a company for the manufacture of trolley retriever, the invention of James E. Grundy, a Flint motorman. The device fastens on the outside of the dash board on the rear platform of interurban trolley cars which travel at high speed. It is used to keep the trolley from jumping wildly when it leaves the wire. Street car men regard it as a very valuable invention.

The name of Mr. Crusoe's company is the Reliable Trolley Retriever company.

Mrs. C. L. Adams departed today for the west where she will spend the winter with relatives in Spokane, Coeur d'Alene, Seattle and Everett. She will also make an extended sojourn in California.

PARENTS WILL MEET

Friday evening the first of a series of parents' meetings will be held in the High school building. This meeting will be for the parents of the members of the Senior class and the faculty and school board will also be present.

The object of these meetings is to enable teachers and parents to become better acquainted so that the work in the High school may have fuller cooperation.

TURKEYS ROOST HIGH.

Rhinelander meat dealers say that the price of Thanksgiving turkey will be 28 and 30 cents per pound. They are unusually high this year due, it is said, to a scarcity. But few turkeys are raised in Oneida County and those in the local markets are shipped into the city from the vicinity of Clintonville and towns west along the Soo Line. Ducks, geese and chickens will command in the neighborhood of 20 cents per pound.

Charles Chafee of the Oneida Gas Company spent part of the week hunting near Hazelhurst and returned with a deer. He was the guest of Andy Shafer, formerly of this city.

ANOTHER NEW LODGE

Fraternal Brotherhood Has Thirty
Members Here

The Fraternal Brotherhood is now represented in Rhinelander with a lodge of thirty charter members. At the K. of P. hall last Tuesday night the lodge was installed under the direction of Mrs. Nelson, deputy organizer of Milwaukee. Officers are as follows:

Henry Anderson, President.
Mrs. Rogers, Vice-President.
Steve Gwilt, Past President.
Mrs. M. W. Sorenson, Secretary.
Mrs. W. Sorenson, Treasurer.
Mrs. M. McEachin, Chaplain.

The lodge holds another meeting tonight at which several more candidates will be initiated. A social session will follow the disposal of business.

Mrs. Nelson, deputy organizer, will reside in Rhinelander permanently.

H. H. Stolle, the Tripoli lumberman, transacted business in the city Monday.

TERRY REPORTS ON HIGH SCHOOL

State Inspector Makes His Regular Inspection Last Thursday

H. L. Terry, state-inspector of High schools, made an inspection of the Rhinelander High school Thursday. Following his visit C. P. Cary, state superintendent of schools, commented on Mr. Terry's report in a letter to the school board of education and W. P. Colburn, city superintendent of schools. The letter in part contains the following:

"Mr. Terry was especially pleased with the general attitude and spirit of both teachers and pupils. While there were some individual exceptions the students as a whole were ready and responsive and recited in a creditable manner. The school has increased so that the present number of teachers is insufficient. The limit of a class for successful work is usually considered to be about 20. There was a large number of classes exceeding this number. It is, of course, unnecessary to explain that when classes are so large it is impossible for a teacher to do the individual work necessary, especially in the cases of pupils who may be deficient for any reason. I see no feasible way, however, of meeting this difficulty for the present year, since all the recitation rooms are fully occupied and confusion would result from attempting to provide even an other teacher. The school is, of course, working at a great disadvantage in a building which was never intended for so large an enrollment. I am glad to know, however, that these unfavorable conditions will soon be met by the very fine new building now being erected.

"Mr. Terry states that he visited classes conducted by nearly all of the teachers, and after school met the faculty in a general meeting at which various topics relating to the work were discussed. He also talked very fully of his impressions of the individual teachers and of the work as a whole with Supt. Colburn, and in some cases with the teachers themselves, making such suggestions as seemed to be proper. He considers the outlook for this school as excellent.

"The equipment seems to be adequate to the present needs of the school, although, of course, there should be fair yearly allowances for additions and repairs. There I know it is your custom to make.

"The ventilation of the building is very poor indeed, and the teachers should exercise great care in supplementing the present system with a judicious use of doors and windows. The fan, although it is small, will if kept in continual operation, be of great assistance in supplying the air although evidently it alone is not sufficient."

BACK TO THE FOLD

Satisfied that there is no state like old Wisconsin and fully convinced that Rhinelander is the best town on the map, Albert Broulette returned to this city today from Los Angeles, Cal.

When Mr. and Mrs. Broulette left here last summer for California, they intended to make their home there, but they found the country not what the illusive literature sent out by the western boomers had claimed it to be.

Mr. Broulette advised other people who get the western fever and pull up stakes for that country, not to neglect buying a round trip ticket. They will want to use it.

Mrs. Broulette is at present visiting relatives in Portage and will arrive here soon.

J. Feuerstein of Enterprise is ill in St. Mary's hospital, this city.

Walter J. Schleismann of Watertown, S. D., is visiting his parents. Mr. and Mrs. Adam Schleismann, of Watertown, are assistant leaders of the Fourth Regiment band, a musical organization well known throughout the United States. He will return to Watertown tomorrow.

AN ANCIENT CLOCK

Chas. Conro Possessor Of Time Piece
150 Years Old

An antique mantle clock such as was commonly used for indicating time in the boyhood days of our great grandfathers, is in the Squel jewelry store undergoing repairs.

The clock is the property of Chas. Conro of this city and is a valued heirloom of the family. It first came into the possession of the Conro family in 1805 and at that time was an old clock. Its estimated age is placed at one hundred and fifty years. A statement inside the clock shows that the time piece when new cost the purchaser one hundred dollars. For some time the clock has been out of order but Mr. Squel hopes to put it in commission again.

Among other bits of information pasted inside the clock are the government postage rates of over a century ago. It cost money to send a letter those days as the following table denotes:

Any distance not exceeding 30 miles, 6 1/4 cents; over 30 miles and not exceeding 80, 10 cents; over 80 miles and not exceeding 150, 12 1/2 cents; over 150 miles and not exceeding 400, 18 1/2 cents; over 400 miles 25; double letters or those composed of two pieces of paper are chargeable at double these rates. Triple letters or those composed of three pieces of paper are chargeable at triple these rates.

GOVERNOR MCGOVERN HERE

Chief Executive On Way To Glidden
For Deer Hunt

Francis E. McGovern, governor of Wisconsin, and party of friends who have been deer hunting near Elcho for a week, were in the city between the hours of 11:56 Tuesday night and 2:10 Wednesday morning. They were on their way to Glidden where they will continue the hunt, having found deer in the vicinity of Elcho scarce.

In the party besides Governor McGovern were Zeno M. Host, former insurance commissioner of Wisconsin, Gen. Lisle of Milwaukee, and others whose names could not be ascertained.

During the time between trains the governor and his friends sat about the fire place in the lobby of the Hotel Fuller dining and dreaming of the venison which they expect to get.

LOSES FAMILY AND FORTUNE

Clifton Chaney On Way To Pelican
Has Sad Luck

Not only did Clifton Chaney lose his wife, his father and three children and was himself badly hurt in the Indianapolis railway wreck a week ago but he also lost a fortune of $30,000. The Chaney family was bound from Kentucky to Pelican this count.

Just before the ill fated train left the union depot in Lexington, Kentucky, Chaney endeavored to purchase accident tickets for himself and family. The ticket agent was too busy to wait on him and Chaney and his family were obliged to board the train without the insurance.

It was a peculiar working of fate. Chaney lost his entire family and the $30,000 which would have been his had he succeeded in getting them insured.

The Chaney family intended to make their future home near Pelican this county.

TRAINING SCHOOL NOTES

Current events were discussed this week by Ruth Rice.

Frances Bartlett spent Sunday with her parents at Gagen.

Minerva Trotter was absent Monday on account of illness.

B. Mack Dredson attended the Miss Occena Institute last Friday and Saturday.

For opening exercises Tuesday and Thursday mornings, Miss N. Plugh conducts a mental arithmetic class to all the pupils.

EVENTS OF WEEK IN OTHER TOWNS

Items Of More Or Less Importance Boiled Down From Neighboring Exchanges

Washburn—

Word has been received here that R. C. Probert, former Washburn banker, mayor and prominent business man, has been convicted of embezzlement in New Mexico and has been sentenced to a term of eight years in state's prison. Since leaving this city Probert has had a checkered career. His long suit seemed to be starting up banks where he was unknown and operating long enough until he could get hold of a little money to disappear with.

Gladstone—

As a result of a fight in a lumber camp near Trout Lake, Paul Feller of Detroit is under arrest charged with stabbing five men. Jas. Morton, one of the men stabbed is in a dangerous condition and it is believed cannot live. The other four stabbed were George Morton, Will Forbes, Alie Smith and Will Ponquin. All were painfully wounded.

Antigo—

A war on white slavery is to be started in Langlade county. This barn on the governmental experimenta means that the Mann act in the traffic of girls for immoral purposes will be enforced to the letter. Clarence J. TeSelle, recently elected district attorney, has been appointed to look after the enforcement of the Mann law here, with the title of United States Commissioner of the Department of Justice. Mr. TeSelle will also represent the Department of Justice in the administration of Indian affairs and the excise laws.

Ashland—

The instant killing of one hunter and the remarkably narrow escape of two other hunters in Bayfield county has created a decided sensation among hunters in this vicinity and they are becoming so terrified over the manifest efforts of some one to kill hunters that they are rapidly diminishing in the woods in this locality.

Iron River—

The Rogers-Ruger Lumber company have their mill nearly ready for business and before long the buzz of the saw may be heard in that vicinity. They have about 2,000,000 to cut this winter and haul to the city, which means employment for a large number of men.

Tony—

Mrs. W. J. HHI, wife of a farmer four miles south of Tony, was found dead in the yard of her home with a bullet hole in her breast. It is believed cannot live. The other four stabbed were George Morton, Will Forbes, Alie Smith and Will Ponquin. All were painfully wounded.

Shawano—

The United States government has made an appropriation for an $8,000 barn on the governmental experimenta farm on the Menominee Indian reservation at Keshena. The barn will be designed to show the Indians the latest developments in farm architecture.

Barron—

Information just received from Boise, Idaho, states that the official count gives the election of Lieutenant governor of Idaho to Herman H. Taylor, son of former Senator C. S. Taylor of Barron and a graduate of Wisconsin university.

Grand Rapids—

A flock of English and Mongolian pheasants were liberated in the tower of Rock, this county. The birds were kept confined on the farm of John Haske for several weeks in order to accustom them to their surroundings and when given their liberty did not seem to care to take it.

Tomahawk—

While endeavoring to get into a wagon Carl Olson, an employee at the Johnson farm, fell and broke his neck, instant death resulting. Olson was 53-years of age and with his family had resided in this city six years having been employed most of the time by the Tomahawk Lumber company. A wife and seven children survive.

Clintonville—

The corn shredder has claimed another victim in this locality and left a woman maimed for life. Last Saturday Mrs. Chas. Maleug of the town of Dupont was caught while feeding one of the shredders and her right arm drawn into the machine. The hand and forearm were literally torn to shreds and Dr. W. H. Finney of this city was immediately called. He found it necessary to amputate the arm at the elbow. The accident is a most deplorable one and the many friends of Mrs. Maleug will sympathize with her in her misfortune.

Ironwood—

The case of the people vs. M. A. Fitzsimons, charged with embezzlement of the funds of the late bank of Ironwood was continued to the February term of circuit court, on motion of Attorney H. M. Norris, who represented that, inasmuch as his client had been for some time after his arraignment and preliminary hearing refused access to the books of the bank, that it had been impossible to prepare for the trial. Mr. Norris also presented a motion that Prosecuting Attorney O'Neill be forbidden to prosecute the case on the grounds that he was prejudiced.

Marquette—

Louis Fleury of Ingalls, Mich., probably bears the distinction of being the only man during the present hunting season to be badly injured by an unloaded gun. Fleury's companion, Henry Ashley, was about to shoot at a porcupine with Fleury's gun. Fleury told Ashley the gun was not loaded and at the same time reached for it. The trigger was accidentally pulled and the hammer flew off the gun, striking him in the eye. Physicians found it necessary to remove the eye.

BLIND BOY AMBITIOUS

Herman O'Pelka Is Anxious To Acquire An Education

Herman O'Pelka, eighteen years of age, who is totally blind, is arranging to enter the state school for the blind in Janesville.

Herman lives with his parents on a farm near this city and he lost his sight in a dynamite explosion while blasting stumps eight years ago. He is a bright boy and despite his unfortunate condition has a cheerful disposition, always looking on the sunny side of life. He is anxious to attend school and acquire an education to enable him to make his way through the world independently.

Though blind Herman is able to get about with but very little assistance. Last Saturday he came to this city on horse back. Upon his arrival here he walked about the streets alone and called at several business places, experiencing no difficulty in doing so. This is remarkable in view of the fact that the afflicted boy comes to this city about twice a year.

On the farm Herman assists in doing the work and is valuable aid to his parents.

JACOB HAMMEL IS DEAD

Jacob Hammel, pioneer Appleton business man and horse dealer, is dead. Mr. Hammel once conducted a sales stable in this city.

As a member of the firms of D. Hammel & Co., and later Jacob Hammel & Co., it is claimed he sold more horses in Wisconsin, Minnesota and upper Michigan from 1866 to 1903 than any one else. He was well known all over the three states. He was a brother of David Hammel, former mayor of Appleton, and father of Leopold Hammel, a Milwaukee attorney.

Constipation and Catarrh

B. S. HARTMAN, M. D.

You are constipated. You have taken medicines a great many years. You have tried to select a diet that would keep your bowels regular. In this you have failed and were obliged to go back to your laxatives again. This, I say, has been going on many years.

You also have a slight catarrh in the head and throat. You never imagined that the catarrh had anything to do with the constipation. Suppose I were to tell you that as long as you have that catarrh you will never get better of your constipation. Would you believe me? Well, whether you would believe me or not it is the truth. For many years I have been wrestling with the problem of furnishing the public an internal catarrh remedy. Peruna has been the remedy that I have devised and it has certainly relieved many thousands of people, yes hundreds of thousands of people, of chronic catarrh.

Constipation was my chief difficulty in treating these cases. I often felt that it would be better if a laxative element were added to Peruna. I feared to do so, however, first because of the number of catarrhal patients who needed no laxative, and second I was afraid of making such a radical change in a remedy that was already doing so well. Thus it was that I continued to prescribe with the Peruna a bottle of Mucilago to those who needed a laxative. At last, under circumstances explained in my booklet, I was constrained to add the laxative element to Peruna. This constitutes what is now known as the revised Peruna.

Now those who take Peruna will find themselves promptly relieved of their constipation. Second, the catarrh will gradually disappear. And once the catarrh is cured the constipation leaves permanently. Then if you follow the advice given in my book, you will never have to take pills any more. Cathartics and laxatives you can ignore. You will be permanently relieved of both your catarrh and the constipation. PERUNA IS FOR SALE AT ALL DRUG STORES. SPECIAL NOTICE: Many persons have inquired for the old-time Peruna. To such would say, this formula is now put out under the name of KA-TAR-NO, manufactured by KA-TAR-NO COMPANY, Columbus, O. Write them and they will be pleased to send you a free booklet.

F. H. Piehl was over from Gage, Saturday.

Jonas Radcliffe of Woodruff was in the city Friday.

Dr. I. E. Schiek made a sick call to Woodruff, Friday.

Peter Green of Osceola was in the city Sunday and Monday.

Mrs. W. J. Basteen of Tomahawk is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Wm. Coyle.

John Burbatt, a successful McNaughton farmer, was in the city, Monday.

Grant Cook, Vilas county superintendent of schools, was in the city Monday.

Miss Edna Lundgren of Staples, Minn., is the guest of friends on the north side.

Mike Wheeler hunted near Armstrong Creek Sunday and brought down a young doe.

Harold Crosby went to Lyndhurst Monday on lumber business for his father, C. P. Crosby.

Mrs. E. J. Slossen and daughter, Margaret, spent Saturday with friends at Weyerhaeuser.

Miss Agnes Carson of Amery arrived in the city Saturday to spend a week with relatives.

Miss Hazel Dresen of North Cranston was a guest this week of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Louks.

The new oven recently purchased by D. Kirk & Company is being placed in the bakery this week.

Julie Demars returned Saturday from a deer hunt near Bundy, having in his possession a fine buck.

Special for next week at Goldberg's, 98 lb sack of Goldberg's Best Flour, 25 lbs. granulated cane sugar. FOR ONLY $3.99. 'Phone 156.

Otis Rigby, a prominent resident of Eveleth, Minn., was in the city this week consulting Chas. Eby in regard to land matters.

Joseph Seibel of Marinette, state parole officer, was in the city Saturday on official business and visiting his brother, P. F. Seibel.

The boy's appetite is often the source of amazement. If you would have such an appetite take Chamberlain's Tablets. They not only create a healthy appetite, but strengthen the stomach and enable it to do its work naturally. For sale by All Dealers.

Sergeant A. F. Vial of the Sixth Cavalry, United States Army, who is on a four months leave of absence is spending a few weeks with his sister, Mrs. E. Harry Keller in this city.

Wenzel Bros., of this city will operate logging camps near Armstrong Creek this winter and cut the heavy timber of the Rhinelander Paper Co.

For the benefit of Rhinelander people who are in the custom of using manure with which to bank their houses for the winter, it must be stated that manure for this purpose is considered unsanitary and disagreeable in every way. In many cities in Wisconsin the use of manure for house banking is prohibited by the health authorities.

We notice that our old friend W. O. Strandberg has moved up on his homestead at Star Lake, Wis., on which he has lived for several years, and has returned to his old love, he having taken the management of the "Our Land", one of Hurley's weekly papers. Bill knows the newspaper business, both editorial and mechanical, from soup to nuts, and the Gogebic range gang will welcome him back into the fold—Ironwood Times.

"It is a pleasure to tell you that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the best cough medicine I have ever used," writes Mrs. Hugh Campbell, of Lavonia, Ga. "I have used it with all my children and the results have been highly satisfactory." For sale by All Dealers.

Miss Clara Bjorklund of Merrill, who has several friends in Rhinelander, is one of the few women hunters to kill a deer this season. While hunting near Mellen she shot a 125 pound buck. Miss Bjorklund is nineteen years of age and proud of her skill with the rifle.

Further particulars of the death of Cornelius Van Ostercut, the Harrison boy who was killed while deer hunting, have been received in this city. Van Ostercut was dragging his gun toward him over a log when the trigger caught on a projection, causing the weapon to discharge.

Mr. and Mrs. William Ashton and two children of Spirit Lake, Idaho, are guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Ashton. Mr. Ashton has been in the west a number of years and is agent for the Idaho & Washington Northern railway in Spirit Lake.

Proprietors of several business places in the city display their lack of neatness and energy in having not yet washed the windows which were soaped by the youngsters on Halloween. These dirty windows do not create a very good impression among strangers in the city.

DO YOU ENJOY EATING

Or Does Everything You Eat Distress You?

Experts declare that the reason stomach disorders are so common in this country is due to hasty and careless habits of eating. Stomach troubles and run-down conditions also usually go together.

John Lind, of Oneonta, N. Y., says: "I have been troubled with a bad stomach trouble for fifteen years, and became so weak that I could hardly walk or do any work. My appetite was very poor, and it seemed impossible to get any relief. Since taking two bottles of Vinol I find that it has already made a remarkable improvement in my health; my digestion is much stronger, and I have gained in weight."

Vinol makes weak stomachs strong because it strengthens and tones up the weakened, tired and overtaxed nerves of the digestive organs. Vinol is easily assimilated by the weakest stomachs, and is delicious to the taste. Try a bottle of Vinol with the understanding that your money will be returned if it does not help you. P. S. If you have Exema try our Sazo Salve. We guarantee it.

John J. Reardon Druggist, Rhinelander, Wis.

William Foster of Winona, Minn., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. David Scholtz.

John Hendry has been appointed assistant master mechanic of the Social line with headquarters at Thief River Falls, Minn. Mr. Hendry and family formerly resided in Rhinelander.

Mr. and Mrs. William Daniels returned Friday from Battle Creek, Mich., where Mrs. Daniels was undergoing treatment in a sanitarium. She feels greatly improved in health.

Deer are arriving in the city on every train. Not all of these deer are killed by local hunters but are merely being transferred here from one road to another for further shipment.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Donnelly of Sugar Camp were in the city Tuesday. Perry reports business lively in his blacksmith shop and manages to keep the anvil ringing ten hours per day.

George Bross, a former Rhinelander plumber, was in the city last week, calling on his friends. Mr. Bross will spend most of the winter in Texas doing work for the Warren & Pettigrew company.

George Dell of Bundy was in the city Monday.

Mrs. Tobey of Lac du Flambeau was in the city Tuesday.

Photographs make suitable Christmas gifts. See Krueger about it. — George Marshall was over from Tomahawk Tuesday.

I. S. Parker of Tomahawk was in the city Tuesday.

Nelson Roberts, of the Standard Paper Company, was in the city, Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilde went to Three Lakes and Eagle River on Grange business, Tuesday.

Order your photographs for Xmas now. Krueger's work will please you.

Remarkable Success of These Talented Physicians in the Treatment of Chronic Diseases

OFFER THEIR SERVICES FREE OF CHARGE

The United Doctors, licensed by the State of Wisconsin for the treatment of deformities and all nervous and chronic diseases of men, women and children, offer to all who call on this visit, consultation, examination and advice free, making no charge whatever except the actual cost of treatment for the purpose of proving that they have at last discovered a system and method of treatment that are reasonably sure and certain in their results.

These Doctors are among America's leading stomach and nerve specialists, and are experts in the treatment of chronic diseases of the blood, liver, stomach, intestines, skin, nerves, heart, spleen, kidneys or bladder, rheumatism, sciatica, diabetes, bed-wetting, leg ulcers, weak lungs, and those afflicted with long standing, deep seated chronic diseases, that have baffled the skill of other physicians, should not fail to call.

According to their system no more operations for appendicitis, gall stones, tumors, gonor, piles, etc. By their method piles uncomplicated are cured without operation or hypodermic injection in cases accepted for treatment. They were among the first in America to earn the name of "Bloodless Surgeons," by doing away with the knife, with blood and with pain in the successful treatment of these dangerous diseases.

If you have kidney or bladder troubles bring a two ounce bottle of your urine for chemical analysis and microscopic examination.

Deafness has often been cured in sixty days.

Wornout and rundown men or women, no matter what your ailment may be, no matter what you have been told, or the experience you have had with other physicians, settle it forever in your mind. If your case is incurable they will tell you so. Consult them upon this visit. It costs you nothing.

Remember this free offer is for this visit only.

Married ladies must come with their husbands and minors with their parents.

KILLS WOLF AND DEER

Saturday near Manson Earl Richards of this city had a profitable day's hunting. Not only did he slay a nice buck but succeeded in exterminating the career of a large gray wolf. The wolf was chasing the deer and Earl, who by the way is an expert marksman, had no trouble in killing both the animals.

As Earl will receive a bounty of twenty dollars from the county and state for the wolf he feels that he is well repaid for his short hunt.

"There could be no better medicine than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. My children were all sick with whooping cough. One of them was in bed, had a high fever and was coughing up blood. Our doctor gave them Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and the first dose eased them, and three bottles cured them," says Mrs. R. A. Donaldson, of Lexington, Miss. For sale by All Dealers.

LUMBERMEN HUNT DEER

Five hunters and five deer. This tells the story of a jolly bunch of lumbermen who returned Monday from a week's hunt in the vicinity of Armstrong Creek. The party was entertained by E. R. Moore of the Danielson & Pierce Lumber company of this city and was composed of the following gentlemen: Henry Scheetz of the Scheetz Lumber company of Youngstown, Ohio; Albert Klotz Jr., manager Carl Miller Lumber company Milwaukee; Paul Frahm of Frahm & Banning company, Milwaukee; G. W. Haines of Ellwood Lumber company Pittsburg, Pa.

VENISON SUPPER

Dr. I. E. Schiek entertained at a venison supper at his cottage at Moon's lake Monday night. The guests rode to the scene of the feast in autos. Those gathered about the board were Dr. J. T. Elliott, Harry McWayne, Gil Forsyth, William Secord, Barney Arnold, Paul Gaston, W. C. Liebenstein and F. E. Parker.

THE BANK OF PERSONAL SERVICE

Millions In Interest From Savings

The banks of the United States hold billions of dollars of small savings, and most of the saving accounts making up the vast total were started with very moderate sums. On these savings the banks pay out millions of dollars of interest each year.

International Special Molasses Feed

MIXED WITH CORN AND OATS

COWS INCREASE ONE-THIRD

Mr. J. P. Goodall of Capron, Ill., writes us as follows: "I have used International Special Molasses Feed for two years, feeding 4 pounds per day mixed with ground corn and oats and by using your feed as a basis I have obtained an increase of one-third in milk production. My cows always keep healthy and eat with a relish. International Special Molasses Feed will cost only a few cents more per ton than ground corn and oats. For each ton of International Special Molasses Feed that you will buy and use along with ground corn and oats you will make an extra profit of $10.00 over and above all extra cost. Latest State bulletin gives the following reports on the analysis of the International Special Molasses Feed: State of Pennsylvania, protein 14.65, fat 5.74, State of New Jersey, protein 15.02, fat 6.02, State of New York, protein 15.14, fat 6.14. This compares with the average analysis of less than 10% protein for ground corn and oats."

We sell and recommend INTERNATIONAL SPECIAL MOLASSES FEED. We are headquarters for everything in our line.

The selection of Rhinelander for the next meeting of the potato growers' association and the selection of the new president speaks well for the influence of Agricultural Representative Luther of Oneida county among the leading agricultural representatives of the state.

Approximately $15,000 was spent by the Wisconsin equal suffrage association in the recent losing fight for votes for women. The figures represent the total of all sums reported to the secretary of state as disbursed in the campaign. The largest single item was one of nearly $10,000 spent by the Political Equality league of Wisconsin.

A careful examination of John Schrank, would-be slayer of Theodore Roosevelt has been underway for days by an alienist commission and it is generally reported that Schrank will be pronounced insane and perhaps be sent to an asylum for life. The report may be handed in by the commission at once or days later.

It is certainly amusing and interesting to see how the democratic politicians are worrying about what position William Jennings Bryan will hold in President Elect Wilson's administration. They are all jealous and scared at the power of this mighty man. If Governor Wilson wishes to succeed, he will have to turn a deaf ear to the old political machine. It was not the influence of the Champ Clarks and the Underwoods that gave Woodrow Wilson an overwhelming electoral vote.

SPECIAL SESSION

President-elect Wilson announced just before taking the steamer for Bermuda that he will call a special session of congress to revise the tariff not later than April 15 of next year.

He said, "I shall call congress because I think the party should keep its pledges, then again I know it to be in the interests of business that all uncertainty as to what the particular items of tariff revision are to be should be removed as soon as possible."

MAKE WHOLESALE ARRESTS

Acting under direction of Postmaster General Hitchcock, postoffice inspectors and United States marshals in seventy-two leading cities of the country began today practically simultaneous raids for the arrest of 172 physicians, questionable medical and surgical practitioners, and proprietors of drug concerns, charged with criminal medical practices or the sale of drugs and instruments used for criminal purposes.

The arrests are made for misuse of the mails, each case being based on the use of the mails to solicit business or dispose of wares.

Two Milwaukee physicians and three midwives were arrested by Federal Marshal H. A. Well and his deputies on the charge of using the mails illegally. They were taken in a nation-wide movement by the government.

Mrs. C. P. Crosby and Mrs. W. D. Brown gave two five o'clock teas on Monday and Wednesday evenings.

Mrs. Robt. Peterson was pleasantly surprised on the 16th anniversary of her wedding by about twenty-five ladies Wednesday.

THANKSGIVING

Once more a young and mighty nation pauses a moment in its noisy toil to give thanks for its manifold blessings and sing its harvest home. Since the first man dug for roots in the perilous forest with his little ineffective stones, and raised his voice in an ecstasy of gratitude to some unseen giver of food, man has gathered his family about him and given thanks for the harvest. As we stand in our public places and sit about our board, let us be grateful first and last and beyond all else that we have bread to eat. The crops are at the bottom of the nation's prosperity; its wealth, its learning, its art, its virtue depend on its food supply. Few men can be good or useful if they are hungry; no nation can be happy if the harvest fails. There is no army of defense like the tillers of the soil, no public servant like the farmer. He stands as the gods of our ancestors and makes our truce with nature. Whether he himself plows his stony fields or rides his mowing machine over the limitless prairie; directs his darkies on the old plantation, or guides the water on to his Western apple ranch, he is, of all of us, the nearest God, for he is the ultimate creator. This year the harvest is the largest in the history of the country; the corn crop is the best the world has ever seen. Well may we thank the God of our fathers and His faithful human husbandmen for the blessing of which no war can deprive us, which no politics can imperil, no sadness mitigate. For this year to come we shall have the foundation of all happiness. We shall have bread to eat.—Collier's.

SMOKING HURT STUDENTS

That the use of tobacco by high school students is the cause of a large percentage of failures in their school work is shown by the results of an investigation supervised by Principal Richard L. Sandwick of the Highland Park, Ill., High School and published in the November issue of "The School Review."

Of the graduates of the past three years not one was found to be an habitual smoker while in school. Of the forty-five quitters who were investigated all were habitual smokers and none were in good standing in their classes when they left school. The average standings of smokers and non-smokers were as follows:

77 boys who never smoked ..... 84.5
24 boys who have quit smoking 80.5
53 habitual smokers now in school ..... 70
45 habitual smokers who have recently quit school ..... 63
According to this investigation probably one-third of the boys who fail in school owe their lack of success to smoking. Most of the boys smoke cigarettes. Commenting on the cause of the harmful effect of smoking by high school students, Mr. Sandwick says: "During the period of growth when there is often a general break-up of the nervous and physical organization of adolescents, and when the heart is so often irregular in its action, the use of tobacco is particularly injurious. Its baneful effects are immediately apparent in the loss of mental, moral, and physical tone. By it the boy is unfitted to succeed either at work or at play. He becomes discouraged and drops out of school."

"W. H. TAFT LAWYER"

On the fourth day of March a ruddy and smiling figure of imposing bulk will emerge from the front door of the White House, never probably to enter it again. It is a figure grown familiar to little knots of travelers at railway stations, to those prosperous citizens who make it a point of attending public dinners, to the street crowds of our cities. And the accompanying the raised silk "tillie" is familiar, too. Everywhere we see heads turned to look with answering good nature upon that broad retreating back. In Cincinnati, on March 5, he will probably hang out his shingle—"W. H. Taft, Lawyer"—and his friends will stop him on the way to the office for a cheery word or a whispered joke. And the public, which asked of his easygoing intelligence more than it had to give, will go about its business and forget him, or perhaps only recall his well-meaning attempts to serve them with a half indulgent smile.—Collier's Weekly.

For Sale—1½ doz. cockerels for table use, weighing about 3½ lbs. each 12 R. I. pullets, 1 pen 1 year old hens, and 1 2 year old cock. Must make room for laying stock. All my stock is from the "Laying Kind." Also some fine W. Leghorn pullets. Call on or address 222 Grant St. C. E. Morrill Jr. n31

EXPERT SERVICES NEEDED

As was stated in last week's New North about eight thousand dollars have been spent on electric pumps for pumping city water and now the self-sacrificing committee of the power company offer a rate which engineer DeGuere says would cost the city over twice as much as we have been paying or about $3020.00 per year, whereas, we have had a flat rate of $2400.00 per year. He also says that with the present electric arrangement there is a great loss of power in electric pumping but we have no assurance that expensive changes would reduce the cost very much. Surely the committee was wise in recommending an immediate discontinuance of electric current and the council showed good judgment in unanimously endorsing the report of the committee, but if the investigation stops here the city council has done out a small part of its work and as we believe a great waste in operation will continue in handling the city water works and sewer. The water works of this city are most expensive, the salary of a skilled engineer and mechanic to oversee them and direct and oversee the labor upon them would be a small factor in comparison with the total yearly cost of preservation and operation on this large plant. The time has arrived when we must have the whole plant investigated and have the whole time of a specialist to take care of this water works system. We have arrived at the time when specialists much over such work. We are not criticising any particular man but we are criticising an old system that must bring loss and waste to the city so long as it is continued.

THE CALAMITY HOWLER

Notice should be served on Senator Smoot and some others that the time for political contingent calamity howling is over. Let the campaign Cassandra shut up.

Politics is by no manner of means the biggest thing or interest in the country. The election is over, the people have chosen, and what the country and sensible republicans want is surcease of croaking over the disaster contingent on democratic victory.

To wish Mr. Wilson well is to wish the country well; and no republican in his senses would want to see Mr. Wilson make a failure of it and play hob with business and employment merely because that would insure a democratic smashup in 1916.

Therefore if Mr. Smoot and other croakers would leave off insisting that the democrats are pledged to do things that mean "industrial revolution" and souphouses, the country would be obliged to them.

Mr. Wilson certainly is pledged to no such thing; and even speaker Clark, whose talk was pretty radical, is now rejoicing over the evidence of prosperity and intimating that his party will not proceed to play the fool and the wrecker on the Smoot theory.

"Calamity howlers," he says, "will not be able to precipitate trouble this time." Doubtless not. But they do more or less mischief, anyhow.—Milwaukee Sentinel, Nov. 19, 1912.

When the rock ridden old Sentinel talks this way it is time for the moderate calamity howler to keep still.

CRUSADE AGAINST CIGARETTES

Superintendent O. O. Bantling of the Stoughton city schools has entered upon a campaign against the sellers of cigarettes to young boys and effort will be made to prosecute all the guilty parties, writes the Stoughton correspondent of the Madison Democrat. Continuing, the article referred to says:

"It is said that some dealers in the city obtain great profit from the trade and that boys of eight, nine and ten years of age can get all the cigarettes that they have money to pay for. Some boys even steal the means with which to buy. Professor Bantling states that the matter came up at the state teachers' convention and a resolution was adopted to the effect that a crusade against the habit be started in every community. Police officers will be asked to make arrests where proof of violations are obtainable. It is now realized that the cigarette habit among children is not only undermining the health of the nation, but robbing the boys of the ambition necessary for good and useful citizenship."

ENTERTAIN AT DINNER

Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Crosby and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Taylor entertained at dinner Tuesday evening at the home of the former.

No Maltese Cats In Malta.

There are a few of the so-called Maltese terriers in Malta, but they are not of pure blood, and the puppies which the street hawkers offer for sale to tourists are more or less mongrel, with a strain of the old breed. The Maltese cat does not exist in Malta; at least not one has been seen here of the color called Maltese in the United States.

LISZT, SUBJECT AT WOMAN'S CLUB

Mrs. Daniels Reads Paper On Musician—Fine Program Is Given

The Woman's Club held its regular meeting Tuesday afternoon.

The timely topic of the day, "Shall Sex Hygiene be Taught in the Public Schools?" was introduced by Mrs. W. E. Brown, who showed what steps have been taken along this line. She also took extracts from magazine articles that showed the subject a much discussed one.

Liszt, as composer, virtuoso and man was very interestingly depicted by Mrs. Daniels, who read a paper on the various phases of his life and musical compositions. Owing to the extreme difficulty of Liszt's works, the musical program was short, but the ladies showed their appreciation of the piano numbers, consisting of the "Twelfth Hungarian Rhapsody" rendered by Miss McQueen and Yankee Doodle, first as written according to the style of Grieg and then an elaborated by the frills and furbelows of Liszt. The latter selection was rendered by Mrs. Hampton. Several numbers were played on the phonograph.

A social period followed the meeting.

The timely topic for the next meeting will be "The Bulgarian War"

TO GIVE TAX COUPONS

State Commission to Issue Receipts For Income Tax Offsets

Coupons will be issued to all persons who pay personal property taxes. This is announced in a special statement prepared by the state commission. The coupons will be issued by the local assessors of incomes and forwarded by them to the local treasurer against whom they are issued. Ordinary personal property tax receipts will not be received in offset in districts other than that in which issued.

KILLED BY STREET CAR

W. E. and S. H. Ashton received the sad news Tuesday of the shocking death of their eldest brother, Miles Ashton, at London, Ind. He was killed by an interurban car. Particulars of the accident have not been had.

Mr. Ashton was 67 years of age and the first in a family of eight to be taken by death.

BARNEY OLDFIELD, THE SECOND

E. A. Forbes' auto driven by Mr. Forbes crashed into the rear end of a wagon on south Pelham street late Monday afternoon. The car was damaged to some extent and is now in the repair shop.

Mr. Forbes thinks that he is entitled to the leather medal for careless driving.

BALKAN WAR IN EPITOME

The Balkan war, apparently about to end, has been one of the shortest, bloodiest and most decisive in history.

Arraigned on one side were Bulgaria, Serbia, Montenegro and Greece, on the other Turkey. Montenegro began the hostilities on Oct. 4.

The Turks won not a single important engagement unless their defense of Constantinople may be considered one.

Of European Turkey every square foot has fallen into the allies' hands except Constantinople and a thirty-mile square patch adjoining it, and the towns of Adrianople and Scutari. The estimated casualties are as follows:

	Killed.	Wounded.
Turkey	20,000	100,000
Bulgaria	10,000	40,000
Serbia	3,500	16,500
Montenegro	800	5,200
Greece	300	2,300

Above the cost of maintaining their usual military establishments it is estimated that the warring states have spent $150,000,000 on the struggle, not counting injury to trade, destruction to property or loss of services of the killed and maimed.

"SURE SHOT" WITH US

Henry J. Kraening, a prominent Milwaukee manufacturer, E. C. Randolph, a leading hotel man of that city, and Rudy Scharp, a wholesale paper dealer of Milwaukee, are in the city today, guests of Hon. W. T. Stevens, E. C. Sturdevant and other Rhinelander friends.

This morning the gentlemen were conveyed in Mr. Stevens' car to the Pine Lake country where with the good marksmanship of "Sure Shot" Scharp they succeeded in killing three deer,—two bucks and a doe. Some doubling Thomas remarked that the animals had been tied to a tree awaiting the arrival of the hunters, but this is not so as Messrs. Stevens and Sturdevant will vouch. That "Sure Shot" is sure some kid with the rifle. Beside him Buffalo Bill would look like an amateur in his palmist days.

Dexter Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Brown, is ill with double pneumonia in a Chicago hospital.

Unsatisfying Menu.

The young girls who work in the Paris shops have 50 centimes to spend for their midday meal, and when a charitable society inquired as to how the money was being spent, the following list was found to embody the average: Fried potatoes or sausage, 14 centimes; bread, 10 centimes; bonbons, 10 centimes; violets or other flowers, 20 centimes. The society no longer had any cause to wonder why the girls were undernourished and ill-nourished.

Silk Umbrellas.

Umbrellas when not in use should be left open. Never put away while damp, and do not allow them to stand in a dusty place, as this rots the silk more than any other cause. When a small hole or cut appears in a silk umbrella it may be mended with a piece of black court plaster or mending tissue.

Conjugal Amenities.

Wife—I saw Mrs. Becker this morning, and she complained that on the occasion of her last visit you were so rude to her that she thought she must have offended you. Husband—Nothing of the kind; on the contrary I like her very much, but it was rather dark at the time, and when I entered the room I thought at first it was you.

Has Pig for Her Pet. Miss Ethel Albright of Palmyra, N. Y., has an unusual pet, a tame pig, which she raised by artificial means. It was taken from the litter when a few days old. The little animal shows great affection for its young mistress, following her about, as would a dog, and showing its jealousy of her other pets.

No Difference to Her.

"I understand your husband is a candidate for office," said a suffragette out west to her sister in the cause. "Are you going to support him?" "Oh, I suppose so," answered the sister, somewhat wearily, "I've been supporting him for the past ten years."—Chicago Record-Herald.

No Good Thing Is Ever Lost.

Remember that truth, the most important and encouraging of all truths. Your life may not seem worth while, the sacrifices that you make for others may not seem worth while. But no good thing is ever lost. And he who does his duty contributes forever to the sum total of that which is good in the universe.

Theory.

"Why is there no great American dramatist?" asked the art pessimist. "Because," replied the ardent manager, "when an American is capable of thinking up a first-class practical plot and dressing it up in good speeches, he doesn't bother about the theater. He goes into politics."

Embarrassment of Riches.

"Wealth doesn't always bring happiness," remarked the youngster with the large spectacles. "Now," asserted the other kid. "Look at me cousin Jender. He's got two cents and he can't decide between lollipops and ice cream."—Pittsburg Post.

Time to Be Silent.

Especially when there is excitement in a community hold your tongue. The time is ripe for scandal; every one talks, equally every one repeats, and the simplest remark is distorted out of all semblance of truth.

New Idea for Display of Goods.

Called a "roundabout," a motor driven display rack for stores invented in England carries goods to be shown on the ends of arms that revolve vertically and at the same time swing around a vertical shaft.

Proper Course of Life.

A man's purpose of life should be like a river, which was born of a thousand little rills in the mountains; and when at last it has reached its manhood in the plain, all its mighty current flows changeless to the sea.—H. W. Beecher.

Compensation.

A little girl who had been out walking with her aunt heard the latter complain that her feet were tired. "My feet get tired, too, when I go out walking," said the small maiden, "but I always think what a nice ride my stomach has been having."

The Baking Powder Question Solved

—solved once for all by Calumet. For daily use in millions of kitchens has proved that Calumet is highest not only in quality but in leavening power as well—unfailing in results—pure to the extreme—and wonderfully economical in use. Ask your grocer. And try Calumet next bake day.

RECEIVED HIGHEST AWARDS

World's Pure Food Exposition, Chicago, Ill. Paris Exposition, France, 1912.

You don't save money when you buy cheap or big-can baking powder. Don't be misled. Buy Calumet. It's more economical—more wholesome—gives best results. Calumet is far superior to sour milk and soda.

USE FOR FOREST-RESERVE

In a dispatch from Madison it is stated that E. M. Griffith, state forester, will propose to the next legislature that the state forest reserve be used for the employment and treatment of convalescent consumptives and "run down city folks." There are many daily and weekly papers are nearly 1200 lakes within the forest area and sufficient manual work in the out of doors to be done, which were published in the local paper in cultivating the forests. Mr. Griffith's plan has been endorsed by the Wisconsin Anti-Tuberculosis association.

CITY GETS ADVERTISING

Rhinelander received no small amount of free advertising during the last week through the discovery of the find has appeared in the Chicago Milwaukee and Minneapolis dailies and "run down city folks." There are many daily and weekly papers are nearly 1200 lakes within the forest area and sufficient manual work in the out of doors to be done, which were published in the local paper in cultivating the forests. Mr. Griffith's plan has been endorsed by the Wisconsin Anti-Tuberculosis association.

DAVIES WILL BE BOSS

It is said that those who aspire to presidential offices in this state, in order to realize their ambition, will first have to secure the endorsement of Joseph E. Davies of Madison. Mr. Davies is Wisconsin's representative on the democratic national committee.

ACKNOWLEDGE IT

Rhinelander Has to Bow to the Inevitable—Scores of Citizens Prove It.

After reading the public statement of this representative citizen of Rhinelander given, below, you must come to this conclusion: A remedy which proved so beneficial years ago with the kidneys, can naturally be expected to perform the same work in similar cases. Read this:

Mrs. A. Gruebel, 828 Arbutus St., Rhinelander, Wis., says: "I have found Doan's Kidney Pills to be just what I needed. When I recommend them I know that I am praising a good remedy for kidney trouble. I had an attack of this complaint and was suffering quite severely when I got Doan's Kidney Pills at Reardon's Drug Store. Soon after using them, the pain went away and I felt much better in every way. I gladly recommend Doan's Kidney Pills again: Whenever I use them, they bring the best results and I have thus been convinced of their merit."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-McLennan Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

POTATO GROWERS MEET HERE NEXT

Rhinelander Will Probably Get the 1913 Gathering Of Spud Men

Oneda county was represented at the organization of the Wisconsin Potato Growers' Association at Waupaca on Nov. 14 and 15. John Hess and County Representative Luther joined the association and Mr. Hess was elected president of the association. Rhinelander will in all probability be selected as the place of meeting next fall. The possession of the presidency and the meeting place ought to be a matter of some moment to Rhinelander and Oneda county. Oneda county is fast coming to the front. The farmers and business men ought now to commence to plan on a profitable time for Oneda county at the coming meeting of the potato men. Farmers ought to be careful about saving good seed for planting next year. They ought to plan for the place for the crop and on fertilizing the land. We must put into the ware houses the best potatoes in the state so that when the meeting comes off visitors will see the finest kind of product. We can do it if we will plan and work. Think what it will all mean to this county to have such a meeting here.

The other day Ed. Wemple of Pine Lake township was seen going home with a load of potatoes. No, he was not taking home potatoes that he could not sell or that he would not tell at the price. He had brought to town a load of potatoes and had seen a lot of especially fine potatoes that suited him for seed so he was taking them home now. He was not going to wait until next spring and then take most anything in the way of seed potatoes. That was a capital idea. Draw the potatoes home NOW! Save the very best potatoes for seed NOW. Ed. has set a fine example. Here's hoping a lot of farmers follow the example. It will pay.

The County Representative worked with others in the teachers' institute at Minocqua last week Friday and Saturday. The teachers are waking up to the subject of agriculture. A lot of questions were asked. Many seemed anxious to learn all they could of the subject. That is good. One teacher acknowledged that she did not know one kind of seed from another. Clover, timothy, oats, rye, barley were all the same to her. She wanted to know the difference. This is not written to run down this teacher. It is to her credit that she desired to know what different seeds looked like. But the thing to be thought about is how many teachers are lacking in the same way and are not anxious or making any effort to learn the difference in seeds. Isn't it a queer thing for teachers to know all about ancient history and not to know about the common things of the farm? How can rural education be well done by teachers who know little or nothing of the farm? Now the County Representative desires to receive letters and calls from the teachers. He is here to help teachers as well as farmers. Come in teachers, on Saturdays. Write and make your inquiries if you cannot call. Let's do some work in agriculture in the schools this winter. The teachers at the institute at Minocqua did the work of the institute with fine spirit. It was a gathering of teachers of just as good quality as one will find anywhere.

It will pay to look in upon A. W. Brown's Tamarack Farm in Sugar Camp township. Here is a fine herd of grade Guernseys. One can here see what Guernseys will do in Oneda county. Mr. Brown is getting more Guernseys than he knows what to do with in his present quarters. So it looks as if a new and complete barn would be the coming thing next summer. A big cement store house was put in this fall and is now well filled with potatoes and cabbage. A gang of men has been busy this fall clearing land. A big herd of hogs will find comfortable quarters in a good hog house. The cow stable is kept clean and disinfected. The cows are kept clean. Charles Kugel, the foreman of the farm, is one of the coming farmers of Oneda Co. Cream from this farm is sold in Rhinelander and people securing this cream can feel sure of its cleanliness. The farm buildings are located on Tamarack Lake which makes it ideal for dairy production. When some of the outsiders wonder if this is a farming country take them to Tamarack Farm.

AN EXCELLENT PLAY

"The Third Degree" at the Grand Opera House last Thursday night was a production of high class and immensely pleased a large audience. The play is one which deals with modern police methods in treating criminals and each one of the four acts was full of interest. The cast presenting the play displayed great talent, each member carrying his part in a faultless manner. Miss Leona Stater as Anna Jeffries, the lawyer, were easily the stars. Mr. Zander, manager of the Grand, deserves to be congratulated for securing for his patrons an attraction of such exceptional merit.

HUNTING WITH THE FALCON

Kirghiz, More Than Any Other People, Probably Carry This Sport to an Extreme.

All wanderers are lovers of the chase, but for sheer love of sport and daring exploits the Kirghiz take the palm. Central Asia is the home of fanconry, which was not introduced into Europe until the crusaders brought back falcons with them from their eastern wanderings. But imagine the ambition of the men who fly their birds at wolves and foxes instead of at quails and partridges! Not content with hunting game birds with small falcons, the Kirghiz capture and train the great golden eagles, with which they hunt such game as gazelles, foxes and even wolves.

A well mounted Kirghiz falconer, carrying on his wrist one of these magnificent birds, is a fine sight. The weight of the eagle is such that the owner requires a support for his wrist, and the hunters are usually to be seen with a little wooden bracket that supports the arm against the hip. The eagles are hooded, as all falcons are, but can be used only in winter, when they are hungry and keen. In summer they are fed on marmots and live a restful life, sitting in the sun in front of the tent doors.

When gazelles or wolves are the objects of the chase the eagles are aided by long sleek greyhounds of a small breed, the dogs running in and pulling down the quarry when the eagles have sufficiently bewildered it.

HIS LOVE BEYOND A DOUBT

Surely Impossible to Ask Further Proof After This Really Sublime Declaration.

"Do you love me?" he asked. In reply the modern young girl looked at the modern young man with eyes perfervid with emotion.

"Do I love you?" she repeated. "I do. I love you psychologically, sociologically, economically. From the psychologic standpoint, I feel that our different organisms are so nicely differentiated as to form a properly articulated area of combined consciousness. Sociologically, our individual environment has been enough in contrast to form a proper basis for a right union. Economically, I feel sure that when we come to combine we shall be able to introduce into the management of our affairs the right financial balance to produce the scientific result which every well-ordered and conducted business produces. And now, how do you love me?"

The young man reached forward. He clasped her swiftly but surely in his arms. He hugged her and kissed her alabaster cheeks and her ruby lips.

"How do I love you?" he replied. "My dear girl, I love you just as much as if you really knew what you were talking about."

Gospel of Forgetfulness.

The gospel of forgetfulness is now being strongly advocated by persons interested in various new-thought movements. The theory is to get rid of your troubles by forgetting all about them—by substituting happy, hopeful thoughts for the sad, despairing ones. The adherents of this gospel go so far as to claim for it a physical potency. They declare that illness can be cured by forgetting all about it.

This doctrine, like all the other doctrines that assume the control of mind over matter, is a splendid one when not pushed to the excess to which fanatical adherents are liable. Like the other doctrines, too, is as old as the human race, and has been put into excellent practice in all periods of history. Proverbs and epigrams have been written about it. "Worry killed a cat." "Let the dead past bury its dead." "Things past redress are now with me past care." "We are never so unhappy as we imagine," and the like, and in his "Cure for Heartache" Thomas Morton, the dramatist, advised: "Push on—keep moving."—Indianapolis Star.

Following the Hounds.

Smith was a great cyclist, but had rarely been on a horse. One day when staying with a sporting uncle he thought he would like to follow the hounds, which were to meet near by, so he borrowed from a young relative a horse which was not much accustomed to the hunting field. At first he went steadily until the horse, being startled by a rabbit darting from a clump of grass, broke into a mad gallop. The rider was flung forward on the horse's neck.

"What are you doing, my lad, with your arm there?" jokingly called out his uncle.

"I'm feeling for the brake," was the muffled reply, "but I can't find it."

Another Name for Sunlight.

Insects are often susceptible to ultra violet light (which is, of course, a component of sunlight), as experiments by L. Raybald have recently shown, this fact perhaps explaining the aversion of some species to strong sunlight. In the rays from a mercury vapor lamp, such creatures as snails, houseflies, and tadpoles soon became torpid, and in the course of a few hours were quite dead. Young grasshoppers perished in about two days. Adult grasshoppers showed no apparent injury after a week's exposure, and spiders and beetles were unaffected.

JEANETTE'S WORRY OVER HER HUSBAND'S CAREER

Jeanette walked slowly up the path with an open letter in her hand and a puzzled frown on her pretty brow. Catching sight of me as I sat shaded by the honeysuckle that grew over the end of the porch, she smilingly said: "Oh, Cousin Bess, I'm so glad you are home. What can I do to help Jimmie with his career?"

"Goodness, child, what a question! And how thoughtless of you to spring such a ponderous one on me this hot day."

"I'll help you pare those peaches, even if the fuzz does make my blood run cold, if you will only tell me how to help Jimmie. His mother has written that she hopes I will have the proper consideration for my husband's progression and will help him with his career." If you were a young wife, Cousin Bess, wouldn't that stagger you?

"Indeed would it. Wait a moment till I get you a paring knife and an apron, and we will see what we can do about it. I must get this basket of peaches ready to preserve before lunch time. Company coming to tea."

Settled again at work, I told Jeanette that the best way she could help Jimmie with his career was by serving him.

"Good gracious, you don't expect me to fetch and carry for him, do you? I'm not his office boy."

"No, dear, you are not; but you can serve Jimmie quite well, at home, being his own loving little wife."

"Oh," breathed Jeanette.

"For example, although it may seem a trifling matter to you, you can help his career by studying his digestion. When you have discovered what he likes and what diet suits him best, learn to cook his meals, so that you can instruct any new cook you may have how to prepare and serve them to please him best."

"To look after Jimmie's physical health means a great deal of care and attention, but to worry him about putting on rubbers and taking an umbrella if it threatens rain and to be continually fussing over him is a great mistake."

"Have the raincoat, umbrella and rubbers ready in the hall rack when you think he needs them. He will naturally make use of them without your having to say a word."

"Have the suit of clothes necessary for a change laid out for him and a sandwich, with a cup of hot broth, waiting for him if he is forced to work late at the office."

"Silence is a wonderful help to a tired man. All the little attentions to his physical comfort can be administered without any great flow of words, and a cup of beef tea placed silently beside him on his desk when he works at home will be more appreciated than if you spent twenty minutes in trying to persuade him to drink it."

"Save him from wasting time in interviewing troublesome callers. Offer to write his letters for him, especially those of a social nature, and business ones, too, if he will let you."

"Never trouble him with domestic worries. Let him think that the household runs as if on oiled wheels that scarcely ever creak. That means self-denial, but practice it."

"Learn to wear a smiling face, even if disaster threatens."

"You will often feel like crying with impatience when vexatious problems must be faced and cruel disappointments forgotten, but if you make up your mind to exert your self-control you will be able to smile and smile and smile."

"Don't let Jimmie be distressed and depressed by the sight of your tears."

"Remember there are two kinds of women—the one who takes the heart out of a man and the one who puts it back. The successful wife must be the one who restores the heart and energy to her husband when the fight against obstacles has been fierce and exhausting."

"Jimmie loves to play bridge and you loathe cards. Learn how to play and help him to enjoy that harmless recreation when he is worn with work."

"Do not allow a disparity of tastes and sympathies. Interest yourself in Jimmie's hobbies as well as in his actual profession."

"But, Cousin Bess, his career. How can I help with his career?"

"Just by these little things. Don't you see, dear, that by just smoothing out the rough places for him will give Jimmie more time and uninterrupted thought to give to the building of his own career?"

"There, the peaches are all pared. Don't they look delicious? I will give you a jar when they are done. Thank you for helping me, dear."

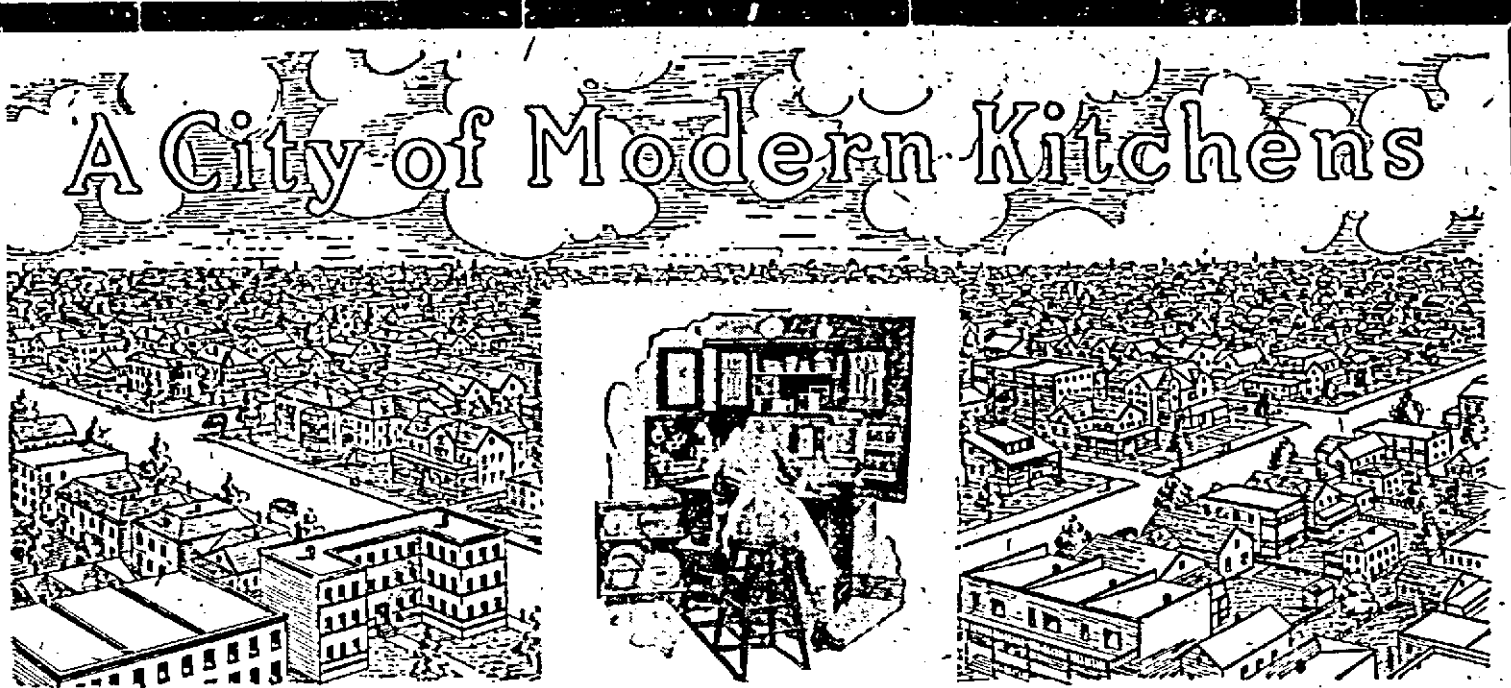

"Thank you for helping me, dear Cousin Bess."

How He Felt About It.

There was one man in Indianapolis this week, who could appreciate the position of the man in the musical comedy, "A Modern Eve," who is the hen-pecked husband of a suffragette. Whether the understanding one is a resident of the city or whether he is one of the state fair visitors remains a mystery, but he is not in sympathy with the suffrage leader depicted in the play. He was a diminutive personage with long, flowing whiskers and a very meek countenance.

The husband, who was dominated by his wife, had summoned sufficient courage to speak of the matter. His narrative of his troubles ended with the lines, "Now, I am tired of this, I am going to assert myself."

The audience applauded and the small man was especially elated. "Bully," he cried. The exclamation brought forth more applause than the lines.—Indianapolis News.

Crowds of Rhinelander Women Are Enrolling in Nick & Anderson's Hoosier Cabinet Club

As a rule, we are not given to boasting in our advertisements—it takes up space and costs money. But we can't help feeling satisfied with the remarkable success we are due to have with this great Hoosier Cabinet Club.

EVERYBODY—EVERYWHERE—is interested in seeing just how quickly we will enroll the 25 members in this club.

Do You Know This Marvelous Hoosier Cabinet

Is the greatest step saver ever invented for kitchen work? It combines your work table, your pantry, and your kitchen cupboard in one spot. Your salt at your finger tips! Your pans and dishes at arm's length! Your spices, flour and sugar under your hand!

Your whole kitchen workshop in a compact space no bigger than a kitchen table!

Nine out of every ten women know all about the famous Hoosier Cabinet—the kitchen cabinet advertised in all the great magazines—the only kitchen cabinet endorsed by the Saturday Evening Post, Ladies' Home Journal, Good Housekeeping, and hundreds of America's greatest Domestic Science Schools.

ONE HALF MILLION WOMEN use the Hoosier every day. Their praises are endless.

"A Model Kitchen" was the exclamation of an experienced housekeeper the moment she saw the Hoosier in a friend's kitchen.

Rhinelander is fast becoming a City of Model Kitchens. Scarcely any street in town but has a house with a Hoosier Cabinet.

Enroll your name in the great Hoosier Club, and have one of these famous Hoosier Cabinets in your kitchen immediately.

SECOND.—The advantage of this club plan is to give you the benefit of the great saving that comes from the enormous volume of Hoosier sales to the thousands who, like 25 Rhinelander women enroll their names at once.

Will You Be a "Hoosier" Member?

THIRD.—The membership SHALL BE LIMITED TO ONLY 25 cabinets, and they will be sold at the national fixed price on special terms of $1.00 cash membership; $1.00 weekly dues.

Every day will set a new mark on the DIAL. The opportunity is getting short. Folks that put off joining at first should HURRY to enroll their names before the club is filled.

Only 25 MORE CABINETS will be delivered on this club plan at the terms of $1.00 cash membership, and $1.00 weekly dues.

ARE YOU A HOOSIER MEMBER? Then make up your mind to come to Nick & Anderson's tomorrow. Let Nick & Anderson place this SILENT SERVANT in your home.

Remember, you get the cabinet right away—you don't have to wait until the club is filled. You also can have it sent to any address or delivered to a relative or friend on the same terms.

One Single Dollar Between You and This Silent Servant

The Hoosier Cabinet used by ONE HALF MILLION WOMEN is the most complete piece of kitchen furniture ever invented. It is full of devices conveniently and compactly placed to save you steps, and will give you from THREE to FOUR hours extra leisure every day.

Be a modern housekeeper. Join Nick & Anderson's Cabinet Club now. If there were a better Kitchen Cabinet made Nick & Anderson would sell it.

Hurry! Join!

NICK & ANDERSON'S CLUB NOW HAS NO MEMBERS. ONLY 25

More Can Join. Be Quick. before it is too late.

Why You Should Join Now

FIRST.—Nick & Anderson have been allotted only 25 Hoosier Kitchen Cabinets to be sold at a special club price by the manufacturers of this famous cabinet.

FOURTH.—Cabinets shall be delivered as soon as $1.00 membership is paid, to each member.

FIFTH.—Those who want a HOOSIER CABINET should enroll their names at once to avoid disappointment when the club is filled. Remember, this offer closes when 25 members have joined.

ADDED TO THE GOOD TIME

Bear Story, Though Short, Was a Thing of Consequence to Those Silent Mountaineers.

There were six stalwart pioneers who settled in Upshur county, West Virginia, long before the war, when there wasn't "a stick amiss" and hunting was good. They were brothers and their name was Phillips.

Each fall after hog-killing time they held a family reunion, at which a feast fit for the gods was partaken in silence, except for the blessing, which was always asked by the eldest brother. They did not believe in much talk or levity. When they spoke it was usually in monosyllables. After dinner they would sit around the big log fireplace, tilted back in split bottom chairs, and smoke their corn-cob pipes in silence until it was time to go home and do the chores.

At one of the reunions something of unusual interest occurred—one of the boys told a bear story. While sitting around the fire smoking one of the brothers pushed up his sleeve, exposing a badly lacerated arm. The first gazed at it in respectful silence for a few moments. Their experience in the mountains told them that their brother had a hand to hand fight with a bear. One of them opened the ensuing dialogue with:

"Umph—Gah?"

"Yeah."

"Whar?"

"Over thar," jerking his thumb back over his shoulder in the direction of Beech mountain.

After this bear story of five words they smoked in silence until it was time to go home. For months after that reunion they would remark to visiting neighbors that they had "a powerful fine time at Eben's reunion."

It was remarkable, because they had had a bear story in addition to the blessing, which was a powerful lot of talk for these silent men.

TRACE ALPHABET FAR BACK

Belief That It Had Its Origin With the Phoenicians Proved to Be a Wrong One.

In a lecture at the Royal Institute Prof. Flinders Petrie attacked the long accepted theory that the origin of the alphabet is to be found in Phoenicia, whence it came from Egyptian hieroglyphics.

According to Professor Petrie, the researches of the last twenty years have shown that signs were earlier than pictures and that it was the sign that survived to become the alpha and beta of one civilization and the A B C of another.

Just as the philologist had discovered one entire system of languages, so the alphabetarian had discovered in the diversity of alphabets an original prototype of all. In Professor Petrie's words, "The Phoenicians are people of yesterday compared with those who wrote the signs that are the origin of all alphabets."

It was to pottery, said the professor, that Egyptologists and others were indebted for these signs, and their development was worked out on these lines. Flatnose made a pot and put a mark on it to show that it was his. In time, because it was his mark, the sign stood for Flatnose himself, and then the sign became attached to a sound irrespective of the thing itself. Gradually the wearing down went on until the sign stood, not for a sound, but a syllable, and then for a letter.

The signs, of course, were not an alphabet; that did not arrive until perhaps 1,000 B. C., whereas signs were found in early prehistoric Egypt, probably 7,000 B. C. Proofs of this common origin were plentiful, for the signs spread by trade far north and south, and appeared similarly in Runic, Iberian and Karian, and yet were unknown in Phoenician.

Uncle Pennywise Says: "On the level, I never heard anybody emit an epigram in my life."

Domestic Animals Protected.

The mayor of a little commune in the Pyrenees has just issued the following decree: "Whereas the young people of the commune are wont to meet and dance every Sunday after mass and the noise they make frightens the cocks, hens and other animals of the village and whereas the result is prejudicial to agriculture, we hereby prohibit dancing within the bounds of the commune during the hours in which the domestic animals take their repose."

Depend Wholly on Coffee.

Coffee is the great staple produced by the civilized inhabitants of Liberia, and most of the planters are totally dependent on it. When the market price of coffee is so low that the yield will not pay the cost of labor and marketing and leave a margin sufficient for the needs of the planter, the plantations are neglected and, as there is no other crop to fall back on, a period of economic depression ensues.

Rubber Atrocities.

Speaking of rubber atrocities, an automobile-owning friend of ours had a blow-out in a brand new tire when 12 miles from the nearest garage. Not to mention the price of tennis balls, which is 45 cents, as opposed to 35 cents ten years ago.

PRICE OF COUNTY LAND TO ADVANCE

Discovery Of Iron Ore Near City Will Increase Value Of Holdings

As the first result of the discovery of a vein of iron ore on the Goldstrand farm near this city it is certain that the price of land in this county will advance several dollars per acre in price. Already steps have been taken toward this end and next Saturday evening at the office of Barnes & Weesner in this city a meeting of the land men of the city will be held to consider a suitable date when the price of lands will be increased.

Matt Stapleton, who is one of the heavy land owners in northern Wisconsin, said Tuesday in an interview that the finding of iron in this section would naturally have a tendency to make the value of all lands higher. Mr. Stapleton said, "Should the vein of ore on the Goldstrand farm prove all that it is thought to be the property will be mined without delay. That iron exists in other parts of the county there is no doubt and it is my honest opinion that some day this will be as rich a mining district as the Gogebic or Mesaba ranges. Lands which are now considered of little value will command enormous prices for their mineral wealth.

It is understood that while the land men will undoubtedly advance the price of lands that such advance will not interfere with options that are at present outstanding.

LIBRARY NOTES

There is so much interest at the present time in the Balkan war, and so many inquiries as to where one can find in concise form the real causes and progress of the war, it may be helpful to know that excellent articles on the subject may be found in the October and November issues of the Review of Reviews and Outlook.

For current events, and subjects of popular interest in every field of activity probably there is no periodical that appeals to a wider public than the Outlook which is issued weekly. For the busy man who has no time for extensive newspaper reading, this is a good weekly digest of the news in brief form. These periodicals may be drawn from the library for home reading.

FIRE DESTROYS AUTO

George Rigwood Loses His Touring Car Monday Morning

George Rigwood, a Merrill man who has a large acquaintance in Rhinelander, lost his touring car by fire Monday morning while driving from Merrill to Wausau. The Merrill Herald gives this story of the accident:

Mr. and Mrs. Rigwood were enroute to Wausau to spend the day. The engine backfired just as Mr. Rigwood had passed the Hessel place in the town of Scott. Mr. Rigwood noticing the smoke issuing from his engine, Mrs. Rigwood urged her husband to put out the fire if possible, but knowing the danger in doing this, Mr. Rigwood warned his wife to run away, and saving an extra tire, Mr. Rigwood ran for his own safety. A few minutes passed when the gasoline tank exploded, a volume of smoke as large as many a business block resulting. After the smoke passed off, all that remained of Mr. Rigwood's car was a very much dilapidated frame.

BABY LOOKING FOR HOME

Supt. Of Orphans And Rescue Home Association Here

Rev. P. Peterson, superintendent of the Orphans and Rescue Home Association of Green Bay, was in Rhinelander Wednesday on his annual visit.

This association takes temporary care of dependent and neglected children, secures employment for mother with child without separation and provides a home for unfortunate, but worthy mothers in time of need. Such mothers are often unable to keep the child in their charge and prefer to place it for adoption in some good private family. Mr. Peterson said that he would correspond with any good family that would like to adopt a child.

MARRIED IN COURT HOUSE

Mrs. Jennie Lucy of Green Bay and Peter Smith of Three Lakes were married in this city Tuesday. The ceremony was performed by County Clerk W. W. Carr in that official's office in the court house.

The bride is the widow of the late Wm. Lucy of Three Lakes.

G. W. Young of Wittenberg was in the city Tuesday.

WORKINGS OF THE CAMORRA

How an Englishman Was Politely Mulcted of $300 by Italian Society.

A paean of rejoicings has gone up in print over the verdict on the Camorra prisoners at Viterbo, and it is stated—rather previously, I fear—that the great secret society of Italy has been scotched. That Naples will no longer be its headquarters is probable, but it is so widely spread over the whole of Italy that it can be no more killed by imprisoning its Neapolitan leaders than you can kill an octopus by cutting off one of its tentacles. The society has local branches in every town of importance, and it adapts its methods to the status of the people whom it bleeds.

How polite the Camorrist can be a true tale of how an Englishman subscribed to its funds will show. The Englishman in question, a married man, took a house in one of the seaport towns of Italy, not Naples, and brought his English furniture with him. A month or two after he had taken up residence, a very polite Italian gentleman called on him and presented him with a bill for $300 for furniture bought from an Italian firm. The Englishman said that there must be some mistake, for he had bought no furniture in Italy, and his visitor then explained that the bill was the means by which he might subscribe to the local branch of the Camorra, and thus obtain its protection. There was no hurry about the matter, said the polite Italian, and if the Englishman did not care to pay at once the matter might stand over for six months.

The Englishman went to his consul, who referred him to the local head of the police. The local head of the police, talking as an official, promised him every protection if he did not intend to give the money, but as a private individual, suggested to him that $300 was not very much to pay to avoid all the anxiety that was entailed by being in the black books of the Camorra. The Englishman paid his $300 and holds the bill, duly receipted, for purely imaginary furniture, bought from a purely imaginary Italian firm.

CLAIMED FOR NEW YORK CITY

Origin of Popular Expression, "Let Her Go, Gallagher!" Said to Have Originated There.

The expression "Let her go, Gallagher!" is in use in nearly every city of the United States, and has traveled to foreign countries, yet it is doubtful if many can tell the origin of it. A group of men recently met in New York city and soon were talking of events that happened many years ago. One of them told the story of "Let her go, Gallagher," and vouches for the truth of it, as he was present at the time it began.

"A number of delegates," said the veteran, "representing the Chicago fire department came to visit the New York fire ladders in the early '70s. They were shown about fire headquarters and inspected the different systems. Then they desired to see some of the crack companies. Their escorts brought them to hook and ladder No. 14, in East 125th street, and while examining the apparatus an alarm was sounded from the West Side. Capt. Henry M. Jones bade the visitors jump on the sides of the fire truck and accompany the fire fighters to the blaze.

"Peter Gallagher was the driver of the team, and he quickly got to his seat on the truck. It swung out to the street, and the driver guided the horses to straighten out the ponderous machine. When in a position to take full speed and dash to the place where the alarm was sounded Captain Jones yelled to the driver, 'Let her go, Gallagher!'

"The visiting firemen never forgot the command, and thus began the famous old saying that is in vogue today."

Human Hair-Nets.

The annual sale of nets of human hair, according to the report of the American consul at Kehl, estimated at 12,000,000.

Hair-nets are made almost wholly in the houses of Alsatian and Austrian peasants; the peculiar skill required to net hair has become in part hereditary.

The children begin first to tie the hairs together, end to end, to make one long hair. Then, with only a round piece of wood about six inches long and one-half inch in diameter and a needle, the older girls and women—and sometimes the men—weave the nets. Each mesh is knotted in much the same way that fish-nets or hammocks are made. Only tying a single hair is a more delicate and difficult task than tying a string.

To make a dozen nets is a day's work of ten or twelve hours.

Never Sealen.

Doubtless a man may be able to wear something that looks cheaper than a cheap silk shirt, but doubtless he never did.—F. P. A. in New York Mail.

Positions for the Fair Sex.

Several bank presidents in the smaller towns are women, as well as clerks, tellers and cashiers. Government experts frequently are among the fair sex, whose deftness of touch makes their fingers especially efficacious for such work as that of the dead letter office.

Saving Trays.

When a jappanned tray becomes old and chipped give it two coats of white paint and one of enamel, the bottom as well as the top. Stand it on the edge to dry after each coat. It will be found as good as new, as well as very pretty. The enamel is easily renewed.

Lack of Proper Courtesy.

There used to be a time, not so very long ago, when if one borrowed anything from a book to a shoe lace one was expected to return it promptly and in good condition. With our younger set one may consider it a miracle if one gets anything back under six months if at all. "I forgot," or "I lost it," seem to be all the apology that many young girls deem necessary.—Exchange.

Maintenance of a Microbe.

A country school teacher was cashing her monthly check at the bank. The teller apologized for the filthy condition of the bills, saying, "I hope you're not afraid of microbes." "Not a bit of it," the schoolmarm replied. "I'm sure no microbes could live on my salary."—Lippincott's.

Rare Brotherly Affection.

In willing the residue of his estate to his brother, the late R. W. Peebles, solicitor of Dublin, expressed thanks for the undying brotherly love which had existed between them, and regretted that he had not always followed his brother's advice.

Valuation of Corn Bread.

Doctors say that eating corn bread is good for the teeth. It might be added that it is also good for the entire system.—Pittsburg Post.

Calming Her.

Mrs. Fidget—"What's that noise I hear down in the library?" Mr. Fidget—"Must be the history repeating itself. Go to sleep!"—Puck.

ALSO FIGHT OTHER DISEASES

Anti-Tuberculosis Association Increasing Its Work

On the eve of the opening of the Christmas Seal Campaign an epoch making announcement has just been made by the Wisconsin Anti-Tuberculosis Association to the effect that from now on, the fight against other contagious diseases will be taken up by that organization. In taking this advanced step in doing general public health work, the directors are acceding to a demand which has come from people in every section of the state, who wish to see that same efficient educational work tried on typhoid, contagious and intestinal disease of infancy and childhood, etc. etc., that is procuring such remarkable results in the fight against consumption.

"Oh no," said Dr. Dearholt, the executive secretary, in answer to a query, "we shall not let up an iota in the fight against tuberculosis. The time has arrived, however, when that work is pretty well cut out; when we know exactly what we are doing and why. We've got a staff of veterans now, who can do twice as much as they are now doing provided they are relieved of some of the detail work. From this on, there won't be any let-up at any season of the year. Needless duplication in of office rent, telephone, traveling and other administrative expense, will be avoided by this move. More important than that, cooperation and coordination will prevent divided effort and working at cross purposes.

If the importance of this step is realized, the people will double their contributions in this Christmas Seal Campaign, and get five times as much action and value for their money. Amongst other things that will be done is secure greater respect for health laws and health officials. We're going to try to teach as much as is known and set up such a demand for more knowledge on the part of the general public that the scientists will have to sit up nights to keep ahead of the public knowledge.

BILLY PERKINS WEDS

He Marries Miss Caroline Nelson in Minneapolis

Billy Perkins, middleweight boxer who claims Rhineland as his headquarters, was married in Minneapolis recently to Miss Caroline Nelson of this city. After a visit at the groom's home in Anandale, Minn. and Minneapolis, Mr. and Mrs. Perkins returned to this city and are housekeeping on the north side.

The bride has made Rhineland her home since a child and has many friends in the city.

Billy Perkins is too well known here to require an introduction. Unlike many who make their living in the squared circle he is a young man of clean habits and well liked among his friends. Perkins is now in training at Daniels' gymnasium for his bout with Art Godfrey of Duluth in Hurley, Thanksgiving night.

CANCELS 20,000 LETTERS AN HOUR

Rhinelander Postoffice Receives A Wonderful New Machine

There has been installed in the Rhinelander postoffice a stamp cancelling machine of the very latest and most improved type. The machine is operated by electricity and is manufactured by the Cummins company of Chicago. Patents for the invention are now pending.

The main part of the machine is a metal disk about a foot in diameter. Running on this is a rubber belt, which, when the letters or cards are placed lightly against it, draws them forward one by one. As this movement takes place the mail is pressed between the rubber impression belt, also revolving on the disk, and the revolving type cylinder on which is the bar and the usual circle, containing the postoffice name, date and time and the cancelling is done. After the mail goes through the cancelling process it is automatically stacked. A one-eighth horse power motor is used to run the machine and it is estimated that 20,000 pieces of mail can be run through it in an hour. A detachable turning handle is furnished with the outfit which, in an emergency, may be used instead of the motor. The impression left by the type is practically the same as that left by the machine formerly used, although the words, Rhinelander, Wis., are considerably larger.

MANUFACTURER'S EXHIBIT and Sale of Furs FRIDAY AND SATURDAY, NOV. 22 and 23

Here is the best news we have announced for some time—a grand Manufacturer's Exhibit and Sale of Distinctive, Stylish Furs, for Friday and Saturday of this week. Through special arrangements with one of the best known makers of Furs in the country, we are enabled to offer our patrons many exceptional values, and at the same time choice of the biggest gathering of new, smart furs ever seen in Rhinelander. The furs are carried by a representative of the firm, who will be at our store November 22nd and 23rd. Our customers may choose from this showing if they like, and special orders will be accepted at extra low prices. Those of you women who have not yet picked furs for this winter will do well to stop in either Friday or Saturday and make a thorough inspection of the display. We feel very confident you will see just the furs you want—and will make a selection.

MR. BORWELL OF A. J. ELLIOTT & CO.

will be at our store these two days with a complete line.

As this representative will be here only Friday and Saturday, we urge every woman in town to come in to see him. His advice is well worth getting and he will also be very glad to assist you in picking the furs best suited to your particular needs. No matter at what price you have set your limit, in the wonderful exhibit you can't fail to find just the things you want.

VILAS AND ONEIDA TEACHERS MEET

Interesting Program Is Held At Minocqua Friday and Saturday

The annual Joint Teachers' Institute of Oneida and Vilas Counties was held at Minocqua last week Friday and Saturday under the direction of Supt. Lowell and Cook. Professor W. H. Cheever of the Milwaukee Normal school was the chief conductor and he was assisted in a very able manner by various teachers from the two counties. The central thought was "Practical work in Reading, Language and Geography."

Prof. Cheever emphasized in his talk the necessity of distinguishing between permanent and transient facts in geography. Most of the permanent facts must be told to the pupil by the teacher and all of their must be memorized. He condemned "fool" questions, such as "name the states E. of the Mississippi River." He maintained that the principal question in deciding what the pupil must memorize is "Does this fact satisfy man's wants and needs?"

Prof. Cheever gave a very fine illustration showing how he would assign a reading lesson in the Middle Form. In doing this he was very practical, having chosen one of the songs every child should know as the basis of the work.

In another talk he gave some devices for teaching children to read. All of these had been tested out in actual class work. Mr. Luther, the agricultural expert of this county, gave two excellent exercises on "Purity and Germination of Seeds" and "Pure Milk." These talks were illustrated by experiments performed by Mr. Luther and by members of the institute.

Miss Plugh of the Training School, Principal Schmidt of Monico, and Principal Paulson of Woodruff represented this county on the program. The Misses Wrettschneider, Salter and Langdon represented Vilas county with able papers. Students from the Minocqua High school furnished a delightful opening exercise on Friday afternoon.

More than 50 teachers were present from the two counties. All were there for business and evidently felt that they were getting "their money's worth." It was undoubtedly one of the most successful institutes ever held in Minocqua.

MEET AT WOODCOCK HOME

The Priscilla Society held its monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Woodcock last Saturday evening. The committee desired that members should don cap and kerchief. At the door stood John Alden and Priscilla. Upon investigation John turned out to be none other than Miss Leona Morgan and Priscilla, Miss Florence Crosby, who cleverly carried out their roles throughout the evening. A part of the entertainment consisted in creating a poster by the use of paste, crepe paper and crayola. The prize was won by Miss Sutton. The Society discussed plans and means for the annual Christmas Bazaar to be held Saturday Dec. 7, in the Congregational church. Meeting closed after substantial refreshments had been served.

Don't fail to attend the Thanksgiving linen sale at Hart's.

ENTERTAIN ANTIGO CHAPTER

Thirty members of Jewell Chapter, Eastern Stars of Antigo, were the guests of Mable Chapter of this city at a reception and banquet given yesterday afternoon and evening at the Masonic hall. There was also initiation work in the evening.

In the afternoon after the reception the visitors were given auto rides about the city. They were delighted with the hospitality extended them by Mable Chapter.
